ARTICLE I

1.01 Purpose: The purpose of this Endorsement, which is attached to and made a part of the annuity Contract issued by the Issuer, is to qualify the Contract as an individual retirement annuity (IRA) under Code Section 408(b) to provide for the IRA Owner’s retirement and for the support of his or her Beneficiary(ies) after death. The Contract is established for the exclusive benefit of the IRA Owner and his or her Beneficiary(ies). If this is an inherited IRA within the meaning of Code Section 408(d)(3)(C) maintained for the benefit of a Designated Beneficiary of a deceased individual, references in this document to the “IRA Owner” are to the deceased individual. If any provisions of the Contract conflict with this Endorsement, the provisions of this Endorsement will apply.

1.02 Ownership Provisions: The IRA Owner’s interest in the Contract is nonforfeitable and nontransferable and the IRA Owner may exercise all rights under the Contract during his or her lifetime. In addition, the Contract may not be sold, assigned, discounted, or pledged as collateral or as security for the performance of an obligation or for any other purpose.

1.03 For More Information: To obtain more information concerning the rules governing this Endorsement, contact the Issuer listed on the Application.

ARTICLE III – PREMIUM PAYMENTS

3.01 Maximum Permissible Premiums. The Issuer may accept Premiums on behalf of the IRA Owner for a tax year of the IRA Owner.
A. Regular Premiums. Except in the case of a rollover Premium (as permitted by Code Sections 402(c), 402(e)(6), 403(a)(4), 403(b)(8), 403(b)(10), 408(d)(3), and 457(e)(16)) or a Premium made in accordance with the terms of a simplified employee pension (SEP) plan as described in Code Section 408(k), no Premiums will be accepted unless they are in cash, and the total of such Premiums shall not exceed the lesser of 100 percent of the IRA Owner’s compensation, or $5,000 for any taxable year beginning in 2008 and years thereafter. After 2008, the Premium limit will be adjusted by the Secretary of the Treasury for cost-of-living increases under Code Section 219(b)(5)(D). Such adjustments will be in multiples of $500.

If the IRA Owner makes regular Premiums to both Traditional and Roth IRAs for a taxable year, the maximum regular Premium that can be made to all the IRA Owner’s Traditional IRAs for that taxable year is reduced by the regular Premiums made to the IRA Owner’s Roth IRAs for the taxable year.

B. Catch-Up Premiums. In the case of an IRA Owner who is age 50 or older by the close of the taxable year, the annual Premium limit is increased by $1,000 for any taxable year beginning in 2006 and years thereafter.

C. Additional Premiums. In addition to the amounts described in Sections 3.01(A) and (B) of this Endorsement, an IRA Owner may make additional Premiums specifically authorized by statute such as repayments of qualified reservist distributions, repayments of certain plan distributions made on account of a federally declared disaster, and certain amounts received in connection with the Exxon Valdez litigation.

D. Employees of Certain Bankrupt Employers. In addition to the amounts described in Section 3.01(A) and (C) of this Endorsement, an IRA Owner who was a participant in a Code Section 401(k) plan of a certain employer in bankruptcy described in Code Section 219(b)(5)(C) may contribute up to $3,000 for taxable years beginning after 2006 and before 2010 only. An IRA Owner who makes Premiums under this section may not also make catch-up Premiums.

E. SIMPLE IRA. No Premiums will be accepted under a SIMPLE IRA plan established by an employer pursuant to Code Section 408(p). Also, no transfer or rollover of funds attributable to Premiums made by a particular employer under its SIMPLE IRA plan will be accepted from a SIMPLE IRA, that is, an IRA used in conjunction with a SIMPLE IRA plan, prior to the expiration of the two-year period beginning on the date the employee first participated in that employer’s SIMPLE IRA plan.

F. Inherited IRA. If this is an inherited IRA within the meaning of Code Section 408(d)(3)(C), no Premiums will be accepted.

3.02 Excess Premium. Any refund of Premiums (other than those attributable to excess Premiums) will be applied, before the close of the calendar year following the year of the refund, toward the payment of future Premiums or the purchase of additional benefits.

ARTICLE IV – DISTRIBUTION REQUIREMENTS

4.01 IRA Owner Distributions. Notwithstanding any provision of this IRA to the contrary, the distribution of the IRA Owner’s interest in the IRA shall be made in accordance with the requirements of Code Section 408(b)(3) and the Regulations thereunder, the provisions of which are herein incorporated by reference. If distributions are not made in the form of an annuity on an irrevocable basis (except for acceleration), then distribution of the interest in the IRA (as determined under Section 4.01(D) of this Endorsement) must satisfy the requirements of Code Section 408(a)(6) and the Regulations thereunder, rather than Section 4.01 (A), (B), and (C) and Section 4.02 of this Endorsement.

A. The entire interest of the IRA Owner for whose benefit the IRA is maintained will commence to be distributed no later than the first day of April following the calendar year in which such IRA Owner attains age 70½ (the “required beginning date”) over
1. The IRA Owner’s life or the lives of such IRA Owner and his or her Designated Beneficiary(ies), or

2. A period certain not extending beyond the IRA Owner’s life expectancy or the joint and last survivor expectancy of such IRA Owner and his or her Designated Beneficiary(ies). Distributions must be made in periodic payments at intervals of no longer than one year and must be either non-increasing or they may increase only as provided in Q&As-1 and -4 of Regulations Section 1.401(a)(9)-6. In addition, any distribution must satisfy the incidental benefit requirements specified in Q&A-2 of 1.401(a)(9)-6. If this is an inherited IRA within the meaning of Code Section 408(d)(3)(C), this paragraph and Section 4.01(B) and (C) of this Endorsement do not apply.

B. The distribution periods described in Section 4.01(A) of this Endorsement cannot exceed the periods specified in Regulations Section 1.401(a)(9)-6.

C. The first required distribution can be made as late as the required beginning date and must be the distribution that is required for one payment interval. The second distribution need not be made until the end of the next payment interval.

D. The “interest” in the IRA for purposes of this Section is the prior December 31 balance adjusted to include the amount of any outstanding rollovers, transfers, and recharacterizations under Q&As-7 and -8 of Regulations Section 1.408-8 and the actuarial value of any other benefits provided under the IRA, such as guaranteed death benefits.

E. If the IRA Owner fails to elect a method of distribution by his or her required beginning date the Issuer shall have complete and sole discretion to do any one of the following:
   • Distribute the IRA Owner’s entire interest in a single sum payment;
   • Distribute the IRA Owner’s entire interest over a period certain not extending beyond the IRA Owner’s life expectancy or the life expectancy of the IRA Owner and his or her Beneficiary; or
   • Annuitize the IRA within the parameters described in this Section.

The Issuer will not be liable for any penalties or taxes related to the IRA Owner’s failure to take a required minimum distribution.

4.02 Beneficiary Rights. If the IRA Owner dies before his or her entire interest is distributed to him or her, the entire remaining interest will be distributed as follows.

A. Death on or After Required Beginning Date. If the IRA Owner dies on or after required distributions commence, the remaining portion of such IRA Owner’s interest will continue to be distributed under the Contract option chosen.

B. Death Before Required Beginning Date. If the IRA Owner dies before required distributions commence, such IRA Owner’s entire interest will be distributed at least as rapidly as follows.

1. If the Designated Beneficiary is someone other than the IRA Owner’s surviving spouse, the entire interest will be distributed, starting by the end of the calendar year following the calendar year of the IRA Owner’s death, over the remaining life expectancy of the Designated Beneficiary, with such life expectancy determined using the age of the Beneficiary as of his or her birthday in the year following the year of the IRA Owner’s death, or, if elected, in accordance with Section 4.02(B)(3) of this Endorsement. If this is an inherited IRA within the meaning of Code Section 408(d)(3)(C) established for the benefit of a nonspouse Designated Beneficiary by a direct trustee-to-trustee transfer from a retirement plan of a deceased individual under Code Section 402(c)(11), then, notwithstanding any election made by the deceased individual pursuant to the preceding sentence, the nonspouse Designated Beneficiary may elect to have distributions made under this Section if the transfer is made no later than the end of the year following the year of death.

2. If the IRA Owner’s sole Designated Beneficiary is the IRA Owner’s surviving spouse, the entire interest will be distributed, starting by the end of the calendar year following the calendar year of the IRA Owner’s death (or by the end of the calendar year in which the IRA Owner would have attained age 70½, if later), over such spouse’s life expectancy, or, if elected, in accordance with Section 4.02(B)(3) of this Endorsement. If the surviving spouse dies before required distributions are required to begin, the remaining interest will be distributed, starting by the end of the calendar year following the calendar year of the spouse’s death, over the spouse’s Designated Beneficiary’s remaining life expectancy determined using the Single Life Table in Q&A-1 of Regulations Section 1.401(a)(9)-9. If distributions are being made to a surviving spouse as the sole Designated Beneficiary, such spouse’s remaining life expectancy for a year is the number in the Single Life Table corresponding to such spouse’s age in the year. In all other cases, remaining life expectancy for a year is the number in the Single Life Table corresponding to the Beneficiary’s age in the year specified in Section 4.02(B)(1) or (2) of this Endorsement and reduced by one for each subsequent year.

C. The “interest” in the IRA for purposes of this Section is the prior December 31 balance adjusted to include the amount of any outstanding rollovers, transfers, and recharacterizations under Q&As-7 and -8 of Regulations Section 1.408-8 and the actuarial value of any other benefits provided under the IRA, such as guaranteed death benefits.

D. For purposes of Sections 4.02(A) and (B) of this Endorsement, required distributions are considered to commence on the IRA Owner’s required beginning date, or, if applicable, on the date distributions are required to begin to the surviving spouse under Section 4.02(B)(2) of this Endorsement. However, if distributions start prior to the applicable date in the preceding sentence, on an irrevocable basis (except for acceleration) under an annuity contract meeting the requirements of Regulations Section 1.401(a)(9)-6, the required distributions are considered to commence on the annuity starting date.

E. If the Designated Beneficiary is the IRA Owner’s surviving spouse, the spouse may elect to treat the IRA as his or her own IRA. This election will be deemed to have been made if such surviving spouse, who is the sole Beneficiary of the IRA, pays a Premium to the IRA or fails to take required distributions as a Beneficiary.

TRADITIONAL INDIVIDUAL RETIREMENT ANNUITY (IRA)

F. The required minimum distributions payable to a Designated Beneficiary from this IRA may be withdrawn from another IRA the beneficiary holds from the same deceased IRA Owner in accordance with Q&A - 9 of Regulations Section 1.408-8.

G. If the Beneficiary payment election described in Section 4.02 is not made by December 31 of the year following the year the IRA Owner dies, the Issuer reserves the right to elect, in its complete and sole discretion, to do any one of the following:
   • Make no distribution until the Beneficiary(ies) provides a proper withdrawal request;
   • Distribute the entire IRA to the Beneficiary(ies) in a single sum payment; or
   • Distribute the entire remaining interest to the Beneficiary(ies) pursuant to the applicable option in Sections 4.02(A) or (B) of this Endorsement.

The Issuer will not be liable for any penalties or taxes related to the Beneficiary's failure to take a required minimum distribution.

ARTICLE V – REPORTING

The IRA Owner agrees to provide the Issuer with information necessary for the Issuer to prepare any report required under Code Section 408(i), Regulations Sections 1.408-5 and 1.408-6, and under guidance published by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS).

The Issuer shall furnish annual calendar year reports concerning the status of the annuity and such information concerning required minimum distributions as is prescribed by the IRS.

ARTICLE VI – AMENDMENTS

Any amendment made for the purpose of complying with provisions of the Code and related Regulations may be made without the consent of the IRA Owner. The IRA Owner will be deemed to have consented to any other amendment unless the IRA Owner notifies the Issuer that he or she does not consent within 30 days from the date the Issuer mails the amendment to the IRA Owner.

ARTICLE VII – RESPONSIBILITY OF THE PARTIES

The Issuer shall not be responsible for any penalties, taxes, judgments, or expenses incurred by the IRA Owner in connection with this IRA and shall have no duty to determine whether any Premiums to or distributions from this IRA comply with the Code, Regulations, rulings, or this Endorsement.

This disclosure statement explains the rules governing a Traditional IRA. The term IRA will be used in this disclosure statement to refer to a Traditional IRA (under Internal Revenue Code Section (IRC Sec.) 408(b)) unless specified otherwise.

RIGHT TO REVOKE YOUR IRA
You have the right to revoke your IRA within seven days of the receipt of the disclosure statement. If revoked, you are entitled to a full return of the Premiums you made to your IRA. The amount returned to you would not include an adjustment for such items as sales commissions, administrative expenses, or fluctuation in market value. You may make this revocation only by mailing or delivering a written notice to the Issuer at the address listed on the application.

If you send your notice by first class mail, your revocation will be deemed mailed as of the postmark date.

If you have any questions about the procedure for revoking your IRA, please call the Issuer at the telephone number listed on the application.

REQUIREMENTS OF A ROTH IRA
A. Cash Premiums – Your Premium must be in cash, unless it is a rollover.
B. Maximum Premium – The total amount you may contribute to an IRA for any taxable year cannot exceed the lesser of 100 percent of your compensation or $5,500 for 2017 and 2018, with possible cost-of-living adjustments each year thereafter. If you also maintain a Roth IRA (i.e., an IRA subject to the limits of IRC Sec. 408A), the maximum Premium to your Traditional IRAs is reduced by any Premiums you make to your Roth IRAs.
C. Premium Eligibility – You are eligible to make a regular Premium to your IRA if you have Compensation and have not attained age 70½ by the end of the taxable year for which the Premium is made.
D. Catch-Up Premiums – If you are age 50 or older by the close of the taxable year, you may make an additional Premium to your IRA. The maximum additional Premium is $1,000 per year.
E. Nonforfeitability – Your interest in your IRA is nonforfeitable.
F. Commingling Assets – The assets of your IRA cannot be commingled with other property except in a common trust fund or common investment fund.
G. Life Insurance – No portion of your IRA may be invested in life insurance contracts.
H. Refund of Premiums – Any refund of Premiums must be applied before the close of the calendar year following the year of the refund toward the payment of future Premiums or the purchase of additional benefits.
I. Collectibles – You may not invest the assets of your IRA in collectibles (within the meaning of IRC Sec. 408(m)). A collectible is defined as any work of art, rug or antique, metal or gem, stamp or coin, alcoholic beverage, or other tangible personal property specified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). However, specially minted United States gold and silver coins, and certain state-issued coins are permissible investments. Platinum coins and certain gold, silver, platinum, or palladium bullion (as described in IRC Sec. 408(m)(3)) are also permitted as IRA investments.
J. Required Minimum Distribution – You are required to take minimum distributions from your IRA at certain times in accordance with Treasury Regulation 1.408-8. Below is a summary of the IRA distribution rules.

1. You are required to take a minimum distribution from your IRA for the year in which you reach age 70½ and for each year thereafter. You must take your first distribution by your required beginning date, which is April 1 of the year following the year you attain age 70½. Minimum distributions may be taken by annuitizing your contract to receive a series of periodic distributions made at intervals not longer than one year. The first distribution that must be made must be the distribution that is required for one payment interval. Payment intervals are the periods for which distributions are made to you (e.g., bimonthly, monthly, etc.). The second distribution need not be made until the end of the next payment interval.

The size of your distributions will depend on the rate of return, your age (and the ages of your Beneficiaries) the amount of Premiums you have made to your IRA, and your distribution option. Your distributions must be made at intervals not longer than one year, over your life or the life of you and your Beneficiary. Distributions may also be made over a period certain not longer than your life expectancy or the joint life expectancy of you and your Beneficiary determined using the Uniform Lifetime Table provided by the IRS.

2. If you do not annuitize your IRA, the minimum distribution for any taxable year is equal to the amount obtained by dividing the IRA balance at the end of the prior year by the applicable divisor.

The applicable divisor is generally determined using the Uniform Lifetime Table provided by the IRS. The table assumes a Beneficiary exactly 10 years younger than you, regardless of who is named as your Beneficiary, if any. If your spouse is your sole Beneficiary for the entire calendar year, and is more than 10 years younger than you, the required minimum distribution is determined each year using the actual joint life expectancy of you and your spouse, obtained from the Joint Life Expectancy Table provided by the IRS, rather than the life expectancy divisor from the Uniform Lifetime Table.

3. We reserve the right to do any one of the following by April 1 of the year following the year in which you turn age 70½.
   (a) Make no distribution until you give us a proper withdrawal request
   (b) Distribute your entire IRA to you in a single sum payment
   (c) Determine your required minimum distribution each year based on your life expectancy, calculated using the Uniform Lifetime Table, and pay those distributions to you until you direct otherwise, or
   (d) Annuitize your IRA.

If you fail to remove a required minimum distribution, an additional penalty tax of 50 percent is imposed on the amount of the required minimum distribution that should have been taken but was not. You must file IRS Form 5329 along with your income tax return to report and remit any additional taxes to the IRS.

4. Your Designated Beneficiary is determined based on the Beneficiaries designated as of the date of your death, who remain your Beneficiaries as of September 30 of the year following the year of your death.

If you die on or after your required beginning date, distributions must be made to your Beneficiaries over the contract option chosen. If distributions are not made in the form of an annuitized payment, distributions must be made over the longer of the single life expectancy of your Designated Beneficiaries, or your remaining life expectancy. If a Beneficiary other than a person or qualified trust as defined in the Treasury Regulations is named, you will be treated as having no Designated Beneficiary of your IRA for purposes of determining the distribution period. If there is no Designated Beneficiary of your IRA, distributions will commence using your single life expectancy, reduced by one in each subsequent year.

If you die before your required beginning date, the entire amount remaining in your IRA will, at the election of your Designated Beneficiaries, either

(a) be distributed by December 31 of the year containing the fifth anniversary of your death, or

(b) be distributed over the remaining life expectancy of your Designated Beneficiaries.

If your spouse is your sole Designated Beneficiary, he or she must elect either option (a) or (b) by the earlier of December 31 of the year containing the fifth anniversary of your death, or December 31 of the year life expectancy payments would be required to begin. Your Designated Beneficiaries, other than a spouse who is the sole Designated Beneficiary, must elect either option (a) or (b) by December 31 of the year following the year of your death. If no election is made, distribution will be calculated in accordance with option (b). In the case of distributions under option (b), distributions must commence by December 31 of the year following the year of your death. Generally, if your spouse is the Designated Beneficiary, distributions need not commence until December 31 of the year you would have attained age 70½, if later. If a Beneficiary other than a person or qualified trust as defined in the Treasury Regulations is named, you will be treated as having no Designated Beneficiary of your IRA for purposes of determining the distribution period. If there is no Designated Beneficiary of your IRA, the entire IRA must be distributed by December 31 of the year containing the fifth anniversary of your death.

A spouse who is the sole Designated Beneficiary of your entire IRA will be deemed to elect to treat your IRA as his or her own by either (1) making Premiums to your IRA or (2) failing to timely remove a required minimum distribution from your IRA. Regardless of whether or not the spouse is the sole Designated Beneficiary of your IRA, a spouse Beneficiary may roll over his or her share of the assets to his or her own IRA.

If your Beneficiary fails to remove a required minimum distribution after your death, an additional penalty tax of 50 percent is imposed on the amount of the required minimum distribution that should have been taken but was not. Your Beneficiary must file IRS Form 5329 along with his or her income tax return to report and remit any additional taxes to the IRS.

K. Qualifying Longevity Annuity Contracts and RMDs – A qualifying longevity annuity contract (QLAC) is a deferred annuity contract that, among other requirements, must guarantee lifetime income starting no later than age 85. The total premiums paid to QLACs in your IRAs must not exceed 25 percent (up to $125,000) of the combined value of your IRAs (excluding Roth IRAs). The $125,000 limit is subject to cost-of-living adjustments each year.

When calculating your RMD, you may reduce the prior year end IRA value by the value of QLACs that your IRA holds as investments.

For more information on QLACs, you may wish to refer to the IRS website at www.irs.gov.

INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF ESTABLISHING AN IRA

A. IRA Deductibility – If you are eligible to make Premiums to your IRA, the amount of the Premium for which you may take a tax deduction will depend upon whether you (or, in some cases, your spouse) are an active participant in an employer-sponsored retirement plan. If you (and your spouse, if married) are not an active participant, your entire IRA Premium will be deductible. If you are an active participant (or are married to an active participant), the deductibility of your IRA Premium will depend on your modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) and your tax filing status for the tax year for which the Premium was made. MAGI is determined on your income tax return using your adjusted gross income but disregarding any deductible IRA Premium and certain other deductions and exclusions.

Definition of Active Participant. Generally, you will be an active participant if you are covered by one or more of the following employer-sponsored retirement plans.

1. Qualified pension, profit sharing, 401(k), or stock bonus plan
2. Qualified annuity plan of an employer
3. Simplified employee pension (SEP) plan
4. Retirement plan established by the federal government, a state, or a political subdivision (except certain unfunded deferred compensation plans under IRC Sec. 457)
5. Tax-sheltered annuity for employees of certain tax-exempt organizations or public schools
6. Plan meeting the requirements of IRC Sec. 501(c)(18)
7. Savings incentive match plan for employees of small employers (SIMPLE) IRA plan or a SIMPLE 401(k) plan

If you do not know whether your employer maintains one of these plans or whether you are an active participant in a plan, check with your employer or your tax advisor. Also, the IRS Form W-2, Wage and Tax Statement, that you receive at the end of the year from your employer will indicate whether you are an active participant.

If you are an active participant, are single, and have MAGI within the applicable phase-out range listed below, the deductible amount of your Premium is determined as follows. (1) Begin with the appropriate phase-out range maximum for the applicable year (specified below) and subtract your MAGI; (2) divide this total by the difference between the phase-out maximum and minimum; and (3) multiply this number by the maximum allowable Premium for the applicable year, including catch-up Premiums if you are age 50 or older. The resulting figure will be the maximum IRA deduction you may take. For example, if you are age 30 with MAGI of $63,000 in 2017, your maximum deductible Premium is $4,950 (the 2017 phase-out range maximum of $72,000 minus your MAGI of $63,000, divided by the difference between the maximum and minimum phase-out range limits of $10,000, and multiplied by the Premium limit of $5,500).

If you are an active participant, are married to an active participant and you file a joint income tax return, and have MAGI within the applicable phase-out range listed below, the deductible amount of your Premium is determined as follows. (1) Begin with the appropriate phase-out maximum for the applicable year (specified below) and subtract your MAGI; (2) divide this total by the difference between the phase-out range maximum and minimum; and (3) multiply this number by the maximum allowable Premium for the applicable year, including catch-up Premiums if you are age 50 or older. The resulting figure will be the maximum IRA deduction you may take. For example, if you are age 30 with MAGI of $103,000 in 2017, your maximum deductible Premium is $4,400 (the 2017 phase-out maximum of $119,000 minus your MAGI of $103,000, divided by the difference between the maximum and minimum phase-out limits of $20,000, and multiplied by the Premium limit of $5,500).
If you are an active participant, are married and you file a separate income tax return, your MAGI phase-out range is generally $0–$10,000. However, if you lived apart for the entire tax year, you are treated as a single filer.

*MAGI limits are subject to cost-of-living adjustments each year.

The MAGI phase-out range for an individual that is not an active participant, but is married to an active participant, is $186,000–$195,000 (for 2017) and $189,000–$199,000 (for 2018). This limit is also subject to cost-of-living increases for tax years after 2018. If you are not an active participant in an employer-sponsored retirement plan, are married to someone who is an active participant, and you file a joint income tax return with MAGI between the applicable phase-out range for the year, your maximum deductible Premium is determined as follows. (1) Begin with the appropriate MAGI phase-out maximum for the year and subtract your MAGI; (2) divide this total by the difference between the phase-out range maximum and minimum; and (3) multiply this number by the maximum allowable Premium for the applicable year, including catch-up Premiums if you are age 50 or older. The resulting figure will be the maximum IRA deduction you may take.

You must round the resulting deduction to the next highest $10 if the number is not a multiple of 10. If your resulting deduction is between $0 and $200, you may round up to $200.

B. Premium Deadline — The deadline for making an IRA Premium is your tax return due date (not including extensions). You may designate a Premium as a Premium for the preceding taxable year in a manner acceptable to us. For example, if you are a calendar-year taxpayer and you make your IRA Premium on or before your tax filing deadline, your Premium is considered to have been made for the previous tax year if you designate it as such.

If you are a member of the Armed Forces serving in a combat zone, hazardous duty area, or contingency operation, you may have an extended Premium deadline of 180 days after the last day served in the area. In addition, your Premium deadline for a particular tax year is also extended by the number of days that remained to file that year’s tax return as of the date you entered the combat zone. This additional extension to make your IRA Premium cannot exceed the number of days between January 1 and your tax filing deadline, not including extensions.

C. Tax Credit for Premiums — You may be eligible to receive a tax credit for your Traditional IRA Premiums. This credit will be allowed in addition to any tax deduction that may apply, and may not exceed $1,000 in a given year. You may be eligible for this tax credit if you are:

- age 18 or older as of the close of the taxable year,
- not a dependent of another taxpayer, and
- not a full-time student.

The credit is based upon your income (see chart below), and will range from 0 to 50 percent of eligible Premiums. In order to determine the amount of your Premiums, add all of the Premiums made to your Traditional IRA and reduce these Premiums by any distributions that you have taken during the testing period. The testing period begins two years prior to the year for which the credit is sought and ends on the tax return due date (including extensions) for the year for which the credit is sought. In order to determine your tax credit, multiply the applicable percentage from the chart below by the amount of your Premiums that do not exceed $2,000.

*Adjusted gross income (AGI) includes foreign earned income and income from Guam, American Samoa, North Mariana Islands, and Puerto Rico. AGI limits are subject to cost-of-living adjustments each year.

D. Excess Premiums — An excess Premium is any amount that is contributed to your IRA that exceeds the amount that you are eligible to contribute. If the excess is not corrected timely, an additional penalty tax of six percent will be imposed upon the excess amount. The procedure for correcting an excess is determined by the timeliness of the correction as identified below.

1. Removal Before Your Tax Filing Deadline. An excess Premium may be corrected by withdrawing the excess amount, along with the earnings attributable to the excess, before your tax filing deadline, including extensions, for the year for which the excess Premium was made. An excess withdrawn under this method is not taxable to you, but you must include the earnings attributable to the excess in your taxable income in the year in which the Premium was made. The six percent excess contribution penalty tax will be avoided.

2. Removal After Your Tax Filing Deadline. If you are correcting an excess Premium after your tax filing deadline, including extensions, remove only the amount of the excess Premium. The six percent excess contribution penalty tax will be imposed on the excess Premium for each year it remains in the IRA. An excess withdrawal under this method will only be taxable to you if the total Premiums made in the year of the excess exceed the annual applicable Premium limit.

3. Carry Forward to a Subsequent Year. If you do not withdraw the excess Premium, you may carry forward the Premium for a subsequent tax year. To do so, you under-contribute for that tax year and carry the excess Premium amount forward to that year on your tax return. The six percent excess contribution penalty tax will be imposed on the excess amount for each year that it remains as an excess Premium at the end of the year.

You must file IRS Form 5329 along with your income tax return to report and remit any additional taxes to the IRS.
E. Tax-Deferred Earnings – The investment earnings of your IRA are not subject to federal income tax until distributions are made (or, in certain instances, when distributions are deemed to be made).

F. Non deductible Premiums – You may make non deductible Premiums to your IRA to the extent that deductible Premiums are not allowed. The sum of your deductible and non deductible IRA Premiums cannot exceed your Limit (the lesser of the allowable Limit described previously, or 100 percent of Compensation). You may elect to treat deductible IRA Premiums as non deductible Premiums. If you make non deductible Premiums for a particular tax year, you must report the amount of the non deductible Premium along with your income tax return using IRS Form 8606. Failure to file IRS Form 8606 will result in a $50 per failure penalty.

G. Taxation of Distributions – The taxation of IRA distributions depends on whether or not you have ever made non deductible IRA Premiums. If you have only made deductible Premiums, all IRA distribution amounts will be included in income.

If you have ever made non deductible Premiums to any IRA, the following formula must be used to determine the amount of any IRA distribution excluded from income.

\[ \text{Amount Excluded From Income} = \frac{\text{Aggregate Non deductible Premiums}}{\text{Aggregate IRA Balance}} \times \text{Amount Withdrawn} \]

NOTE: Aggregate non deductible Premiums include all non deductible Premiums made by you through the end of the year of the distribution that have not previously been withdrawn and excluded from income. Also note that the aggregate IRA balance includes the total balance of all of your Traditional and SIMPLE IRAs as of the end of the year of distribution and any distributions occurring during the year.

H. Income Tax Withholding – Any withdrawal from your IRA is subject to federal income tax withholding. You may, however, elect not to have withholding apply to your IRA withdrawal. If withholding is applied to your withdrawal, not less than 10 percent of the amount withdrawn must be withheld.

I. Early Distribution Penalty Tax – If you receive an IRA distribution before you attain age 59\(\frac{1}{2}\), an additional early distribution penalty tax of 10 percent generally will apply to the taxable amount of the distribution unless one of the following exceptions apply. 1) Death. After your death, payments made to your Beneficiary are not subject to the 10 percent early distribution penalty tax. 2) Disability. If you are disabled at the time of distribution, you are not subject to the additional 10 percent early distribution penalty tax. In order to be disabled, a physician must determine that your impairment can be expected to result in death or to be of long, continued, and indefinite duration. 3) Substantially equal periodic payments. You are not subject to the additional 10 percent early distribution penalty tax if you are taking a series of substantially equal periodic payments (at least annual payments) over your life expectancy or the joint life expectancy of you and your Beneficiary. You must continue these payments for the longer of five years or until you reach age 59\(\frac{1}{2}\). 4) Unreimbursed medical expenses. If you take payments to pay for unreimbursed medical expenses that exceed a specified percentage of your adjusted gross income, you will not be subject to the 10 percent early distribution penalty tax. For further detailed information and effective dates you may obtain IRS Publication 590-B, Distributions from Individual Retirement Arrangements (IRAs), from the IRS. The medical expenses may be for you, your spouse, or any dependent listed on your tax return. 5) Health insurance premiums. If you are unemployed and have received unemployment compensation for 12 consecutive weeks under a federal or state program, you may take payments from your IRA to pay for health insurance premiums without incurring the 10 percent early distribution penalty tax. 6) Higher education expenses. Payments taken for certain qualified higher education expenses for you, your spouse, or the children or grandchildren of you or your spouse, will not be subject to the 10 percent early distribution penalty tax. 7) First-time homebuyer. You may take payments from your IRA to use toward qualified acquisition costs of buying or building a principal residence. The amount you may take for this reason may not exceed a lifetime maximum of $10,000. The payment must be used for qualified acquisition costs within 120 days of receiving the distribution. 8) IRS levy. Payments from your IRA made to the U.S. government in response to a federal tax levy are not subject to the 10 percent early distribution penalty tax. 9) Qualified reservist distributions. If you are a qualified reservist member called to active duty for more than 179 days or an indefinite period, the payments you take from your IRA during the active duty period are not subject to the 10 percent early distribution penalty tax.

You must file IRS Form 5329 along with your income tax return to the IRS to report and remit any additional taxes or to claim a penalty tax exception.

J. Rollovers and Conversions – Your IRA may be rolled over to another IRA, SIMPLE IRA, or an eligible employer-sponsored retirement plan of yours, may receive rollover Premiums, or may be converted to a Roth IRA, provided that all of the applicable rollover and conversion rules are followed. Rollover is a term used to describe a movement of cash or other property to your IRA from another IRA, or from your employer’s qualified retirement plan, 403(a) annuity, 403(b) tax-sheltered annuity, 457(b) eligible governmental deferred compensation plan, or federal Thrift Savings Plan. The amount rolled over is not subject to taxation or the additional 10 percent early distribution penalty tax. Conversion is a term used to describe the movement of Traditional IRA assets to a Roth IRA. A conversion generally is a taxable event. The general rollover and conversion rules are summarized below. These transactions are often complex. If you have any questions regarding a rollover or conversion, please see a competent tax advisor.

1. Traditional IRA-to-Traditional IRA Rollovers. Assets distributed from your Traditional IRA may be rolled over to the same Traditional IRA or another Traditional IRA of yours if the requirements of IRC Sec. 408(d)(3) are met. A proper IRA-IRA rollover is completed if all or part of the distribution is rolled over not later than 60 days after the distribution is received. In the case of a distribution for a first-time homebuyer where there was a delay or cancellation of the purchase, the 60-day rollover period may be extended to 120 days.

You are permitted to roll over only one distribution from an IRA (Traditional, Roth, or SIMPLE) in a 12-month period, regardless of the number of IRAs you own. A distribution may be rolled over to the same IRA or to another IRA that is eligible to receive the rollover. For more information on rollover limitations, you may wish to obtain IRS Publication 590-B, Distributions from Individual Retirement Arrangements (IRAs), from the IRS or refer to the IRS website at www.irs.gov.

2. SIMPLE IRA-to-Traditional IRA Rollovers. Assets distributed from your SIMPLE IRA may be rolled over to your Traditional IRA without IRS penalty tax provided two years have passed since you first participated in a SIMPLE IRA plan sponsored by your employer. As with Traditional IRA-to-Traditional IRA rollovers, the requirements of IRC Sec. 408(d)(3) must be met. A proper SIMPLE IRA-to-IRA rollover is completed if all or part of the distribution is rolled over not later than 60 days after the distribution is received.
You are permitted to roll over only one distribution from an IRA (Traditional, Roth, or SIMPLE) in a 12-month period, regardless of the number of IRAs you own. A distribution may be rolled over to the same IRA or to another IRA that is eligible to receive the rollover. For more information on rollover limitations, you may wish to obtain IRS Publication 590-B, Distributions from Individual Retirement Arrangements (IRAs), from the IRS or refer to the IRS website at www.irs.gov.

3. Employer-Sponsored Retirement Plan-to-Traditional IRA Rollovers. You may roll over, directly or indirectly, any eligible rollover distribution from an eligible employer-sponsored retirement plan. An eligible rollover distribution is defined generally as any distribution from a qualified retirement plan, 403(a) annuity, 403(b) tax-sheltered annuity, 457(b) eligible governmental deferred compensation plan, or federal Thrift Savings Plan unless it is a required minimum distribution, hardship distribution, part of a certain series of substantially equal periodic payments, corrective distributions of excess contributions, excess deferrals, excess annual additions and any income allocable to the excess, deemed loan distribution, dividends on employer securities, the cost of life insurance coverage, or a distribution of Roth elective deferrals from a 401(k), 403(b), governmental 457(b), or federal Thrift Savings Plan.

If you elect to receive your rollover distribution prior to placing it in an IRA, thereby conducting an indirect rollover, your plan administrator generally will be required to withhold 20 percent of your distribution as a payment of income taxes. When completing the rollover, you may make up out of pocket the amount withheld, and roll over the full amount distributed from your employer-sponsored retirement plan. To qualify as a rollover, your eligible rollover distribution generally must be rolled over to your IRA not later than 60 days after you receive the distribution. In the case of a plan loan offset due to plan termination or severance from employment, the deadline for completing the rollover is your tax return due date (including extensions) for the year in which the offset occurs. Alternatively, you may claim the withheld amount as income, and pay the applicable income tax, and if you are under age 59 1/2, the 10 percent early distribution penalty tax (unless an exception to the penalty applies).

As an alternative to the indirect rollover, your employer generally must give you the option to directly roll over your employer-sponsored retirement plan balance to an IRA. If you elect the direct rollover option, your eligible rollover distribution will be paid directly to the IRA (or other eligible employer-sponsored retirement plan) that you designate. The 20 percent withholding requirements do not apply to direct rollovers.

4. Beneficiary Rollovers From Employer-Sponsored Retirement Plans. If you are a spouse, nonspouse, or qualified trust beneficiary of a deceased employer-sponsored retirement plan participant, you may directly roll over inherited assets from a qualified retirement plan, 403(a) annuity, 403(b) tax-sheltered annuity, or 457(b) eligible governmental deferred compensation plan to an inherited IRA. The IRA must be maintained as an inherited IRA, subject to the beneficiary distribution requirements.

5. Traditional IRA-to-SIMPLE IRA Rollovers. Assets distributed from your Traditional IRA may be rolled over to a SIMPLE IRA if the requirements of IRC Sec. 408(d)(3) are met and two years have passed since you first participated in a SIMPLE IRA plan sponsored by your employer. A proper Traditional IRA-to-SIMPLE IRA rollover is completed if all or part of the distribution is rolled over not later than 60 days after the distribution is received. In the case of a distribution for a first-time homeowner where there was a delay or cancellation of the purchase, the 60-day rollover period may be extended to 120 days.

You are permitted to roll over only one distribution from an IRA (Traditional, Roth, or SIMPLE) in a 12-month period, regardless of the number of IRAs you own. A distribution may be rolled over to the same IRA or to another IRA that is eligible to receive the rollover. For more information on rollover limitations, you may wish to obtain IRS Publication 590-B, Distributions from Individual Retirement Arrangements (IRAs), from the IRS or refer to the IRS website at www.irs.gov.

6. Traditional IRA-to-Employer-Sponsored Retirement Plan Rollovers. You may roll over, directly or indirectly, any taxable eligible rollover distribution from an IRA to your qualified retirement plan, 403(a) annuity, 403(b) tax-sheltered annuity, or 457(b) eligible governmental deferred compensation plan as long as the employer-sponsored retirement plan accepts such rollover contributions. An eligible rollover distribution is defined as any taxable distribution from an IRA that is not a part of a required minimum distribution.

7. Traditional IRA-to-Roth IRA Conversions. If you convert to a Roth IRA, the amount of the conversion from your Traditional IRA to your Roth IRA will be treated as a distribution for income tax purposes, and is includible in your gross income (except for any nondeductible Premiums). Although the conversion amount generally is included in income, the 10 percent early distribution penalty tax will not apply to conversions from a Traditional IRA to a Roth IRA, regardless of whether you qualify for any exceptions to the 10 percent penalty tax. If you are age 70 1/2 or older you must remove your required minimum distribution before converting your Traditional IRA.

8. Qualified HSA Funding Distribution. If you are eligible to contribute to a health savings account (HSA), you may be eligible to take a one-time tax-free qualified HSA funding distribution from your IRA and directly deposit it to your HSA. The amount of the qualified HSA funding distribution may not exceed the maximum HSA contribution limit in effect for the type of high deductible health plan coverage (i.e., single or family coverage) that you have at the time of the deposit, and counts toward your HSA contribution limit for that year. For further detailed information, you may wish to obtain IRS Publication 969, Health Savings Accounts and Other Tax-Favored Health Plans.

9. Rollovers of Settlement Payments From Bankrupt Airlines. If you are a qualified airline employee who has received a qualified airline settlement payment from a commercial airline carrier under the approval of an order of a federal bankruptcy court, you are allowed to roll over up to 90 percent of the proceeds into your Traditional IRA within 180 days after receipt of such amount, or by a later date if extended by federal law. If you make such a rollover contribution, you may exclude the amount rolled over from your gross income in the taxable year in which the airline settlement payment was paid to you. For further detailed information and effective dates you may obtain IRS Publication 590-A, Contributions to Individual Retirement Arrangements (IRAs), from the IRS or refer to the IRS website at www.irs.gov.

10. Rollovers of Exxon Valdez Settlement Payments. If you receive a qualified settlement payment from Exxon Valdez litigation, you may roll over the amount of the settlement, up to $100,000, reduced by the amount of any qualified Exxon Valdez settlement income previously contributed to a Traditional or Roth IRA or eligible retirement plan in prior taxable years. You will have until your tax return due date (not including extensions) for the year in which the qualified settlement income is received to make the rollover Premium. To obtain more information on this type of rollover, you may wish to visit the IRS website at www.irs.gov.
11. Rollover of IRS Levy. If you receive a refund of eligible retirement plan assets that had been wrongfully levied, you may roll over the amount returned up to the tax return due date for the year in which the money was returned.

12. Written Election. At the time you make a rollover to an IRA, you must designate in writing to the issuer your election to treat that Premium as a rollover. Once made, the rollover election is irrevocable.

K. Transfer Due to Divorce – If all or any part of your IRA is awarded to your spouse or former spouse in a divorce or legal separation proceeding, the amount so awarded will be treated as the spouse’s IRA (and may be transferred pursuant to a court-approved divorce decree or written legal separation agreement to another IRA of your spouse), and will not be considered a taxable distribution to you. A transfer is a tax-free direct movement of cash and/or property from one Traditional IRA to another.

L. Recharacterizations – If you make a Premium to a Traditional IRA and later recharacterize either all or a portion of the original Premium to a Roth IRA along with net income attributable, you may elect to treat the original Premium as having been made to the Roth IRA. The same methodology applies when recharacterizing a Premium from a Roth IRA to a Traditional IRA. For tax years beginning before January 1, 2018, if you have converted from a Traditional IRA to a Roth IRA you may recharacterize the conversion along with net income attributable back to a Traditional IRA. The deadline for completing a recharacterization is your tax filing deadline (including any extensions) for the year for which the original Premium was made or conversion completed. However, effective for tax years beginning after December 31, 2017, you may not recharacterize a Roth IRA conversion.

LIMITATIONS AND RESTRICTIONS

A. SEP Plans – Under a simplified employee pension (SEP) plan that meets the requirements of IRC Sec. 408(k), your employer may make Premiums to your IRA. Your employer is required to provide you with information that describes the terms of your employer’s SEP plan.

B. Spousal IRA – If you are married and have compensation, you may make a Premium to an IRA established for the benefit of your spouse for any year prior to the year your spouse turns age 70½, regardless of whether or not your spouse has Compensation. You may make these spousal Premiums even if you are age 70½ or older. You must file a joint income tax return for the year for which the Premium is made. The amount you may contribute to your IRA and your spouse’s IRA is the lesser of 100 percent of your combined eligible Compensation or $11,000 for 2017 and 2018. This amount may be increased with cost-of-living adjustments each year. However, you may not contribute more than the individual Premium limit to each IRA.

If your spouse is age 50 or older by the close of the taxable year, and is otherwise eligible, you may make an additional Premium to your spouse’s IRA. The maximum additional Premium is $1,000 per year.

C. Deduction of Rollovers and Transfers – A deduction is not allowed for rollover or transfer Premiums.

D. Gift Tax – Transfers of your IRA assets to a Beneficiary made during your life and at your request may be subject to federal gift tax under IRC Sec. 2501.

E. Special Tax Treatment – Capital gains treatment and 10-year income averaging authorized by IRC Sec. 402 do not apply to IRA distributions.

F. Prohibited Transactions – If you or your Beneficiary engage in a prohibited transaction with your IRA, as described in IRC Sec. 4975, your IRA will lose its tax-deferred status, and you must include the value of your IRA in your gross income for that taxable year. The following transactions are examples of prohibited transactions with your IRA. (1) Taking a loan from your IRA (2) Buying property for personal use (present or future) with IRA assets (3) Receiving certain bonuses or premiums because of your IRA.

G. Pledging – If you pledge any portion of your IRA as collateral for a loan, the entire balance of the IRA as of January 1 will be deemed distributed and will be included in your gross income for that year.

OTHER

A. IRS Plan Approval – The Endorsement used to establish this IRA has been approved by the IRS. The IRS approval is a determination only as to form. It is not an endorsement of the plan in operation or of the investments offered.

B. Additional Information – For further information on IRAs, you may wish to obtain IRS Publication 590-A, Contributions to Individual Retirement Arrangements (IRAs), or Publication 590-B, Distributions from Individual Retirement Arrangements (IRAs), by calling 1-800-TAX-FORM, or by visiting www.irs.gov on the Internet.

C. Important Information About Procedures for Opening a New IRA – To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, federal law requires all financial organizations to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an IRA. Therefore, when you open an IRA, you are required to provide your name, residential address, date of birth, and identification number. We may require other information that will allow us to identify you.

D. Qualified Reservist Distributions – If you are an eligible qualified reservist who has taken penalty-free qualified reservist distributions from your IRA or retirement plan, you may reconvert those amounts to an IRA generally within a two-year period from your date of return.

E. Qualified Charitable Distributions – If you are age 70½ or older, you may take tax-free IRA distributions of up to $100,000 per year and have these distributions paid directly to certain charitable organizations. Special tax rules may apply. For further detailed information you may obtain IRS Publication 590-B, Distributions from Individual Retirement Arrangements (IRAs), from the IRS or refer to the IRS website at www.irs.gov.

F. Disaster Related Relief – If you qualify (for example, you sustained an economic loss due to, or are otherwise considered affected by, certain IRS designated disasters), you may be eligible for favorable tax treatment on distributions, rollovers, and other transactions involving your IRA. Qualified disaster relief may include penalty-tax free early distributions made during specified timeframes for each disaster, the ability to include distributions in your gross income ratably over multiple years, the ability to roll over distributions to an eligible retirement plan without regard to the 60-day rollover rule, and more. For additional information on specific disasters, including a complete listing of disaster areas, qualification requirements for relief, and allowable disaster-related IRA transactions, you may wish to obtain IRS Publication 590-B, Distributions from Individual Retirement Arrangements (IRAs), from the IRS or refer to the IRS website at www.irs.gov.
